

Directions to the InterContinental Mark Hopkins San Francisco

By Airport Taxi

Taxis are available from the lower level of each terminal at SFO. Travel time is generally 30 minutes. Cost is around $40.00.

By Airport Bus

Shared-ride shuttle vans are available from the upper level of each terminal at SFO. Transportation time is generally 30 to 45 minutes. Cost is $10.00 to $12.00.

By BART Directions From San Francisco International Airport (SFO)

The one-way ticket is $5.15; round trip ticket is $10.30 and it only takes 30 minutes to get downtown. Just go to the BART station in the International (Intl) Terminal. BART is a short walk from Terminal Three and a slightly longer walk from Terminal One. You can also take the free Airtrain directly to the BART station. International passengers should turn right upon leaving customs and go to the escalator up to the departure level. Walk straight ahead and turn left and you'll see the station. San Francisco trains depart 3-4 times an hour.

Take BART to Downtown San Francisco and get off at the Embarcadero Station – you have 2 options:

Cable Cars- The stop is at the intersection of California, Market and Drumm Street, right next to the Hyatt Embarcadero - the cost is $5.00 each way (single ride on a single cable car) and will drop you right in front of the hotel on California at Mason

Taxi: Go to the Front of the Hyatt Embarcadero on Drumm street for the hotel Taxi Stand
