Pike Place Market Tour

<http://www.savorseattletours.com/pikeplacetour.php>

Cost: $44

Join us for Seattle's original food tour of Pike Place Market! Your Savor Seattle tour guide (aka Market expert) will lead you through the crowded hustle and bustle of the Market, to the tastiest gems that you won't want to miss. Pair a healthy serving of locally made foods and beverages that will awaken your palate, with a dollop of animated stories and history of this 101-year old culinary landmark. You'll even pick up a few buying tips, cooking ideas, and a list of can't-miss restaurants!

Tour guides are not only culinary and history enthusiasts, but also happen to be past and present members of the Pike Place Market community. Savor Seattle guests always receive special treatment. Your "tour" will feel like a good friend taking you around to visit their friends and Market family.

Discover the sights, sounds, and flavors of this historical landmark in a way that even surprises locals!

This tour spends all of its time in Pike Place Market, giving guests an intense and deep experience with the 9-acre space of the Market.

This 2-hour walking tour includes delicious samples of:

- Low-flying Alderwood smoked salmon
- Fresh and exotic seasonal fruit
- Locally-roasted "Seattle's Best" coffee
- Sweet and savory cherry-inspired treats
- Renowned chef Tom Douglas's triple coconut cream pie
- Savory Russian piroshky pastries
- #1 artisan handmade cheese in Washington
- America's Best Clam Chowder & Seafood Bisque - national award winners!
- Piping hot old-fashioned doughnuts
- And other tasty surprises!

Substitutions can be made for most dietary restrictions.
Tastings are subject to change without notice.

Gourmet Seattle Tour

Cost: $70

Do you consider yourself food-adventurous? Hungry for an intense foodie experience? Then join us as we go behind the scenes to explore the "gourmet" side of Seattle's food scene! Wind your way through tree-lined streets of downtown Seattle and Pike Place Market, to seek out "mom and pop" specialty food shops, artisans, and famous neighborhood restaurants.

In addition to the tastings, you will also go underground to see a micro-brewery and gelato-maker in action. Meet the hard-working people behind the food, and hear their stories and secrets of the trade. Learn about the history, culture, and entertainment offerings that make downtown Seattle a premiere destination for visitors and residents alike!

Half of this tour is inside Pike Place Market and half is in the surrounding neighborhood in downtown Seattle. There is no overlap in tour stops with the Food & Cultural Tour of Pike Place Market.

This 3-hour gourmet walking tour includes delicious samples of:

- Local Washington wine and microbrew beers
- Savory tapas and sangria
- Fair-trade and organic chocolates
- "Serious" artisan pizza
- All-natural pork salami and sausage
- Homemade gelato and sorbetto
- Balsamic-glazed mussels with bacon
- Colombian drinking chocolate
- Raw cow's milk cheeses
- Locally-roasted coffee
- Spent-grain beer bread
- And other tasty surprises!
- Bavarian-style cold cuts

Substitutions can be made for most dietary restrictions, with the exception of tasting stops that involve deli products. Tastings are subject to change without notice.
